

Social Mobility and Class Representative

Aim

The role aims to represent the concerns of all students at the University of Hull in regards to class and social mobility. The role works to eradicate all forms of discrimination and prejudice students face based on their class or background.

Key responsibilities

- Represent interests of students from a range of socio-economic backgrounds within the union by organising campaigns and opening dialogue/debates to address issues within HUU and the University of Hull relating to social mobility and class.
- Signpost students on specific issues relating to social mobility and class to receive appropriate help and assistance.
- Promote links with other similar groups and organisations, within the local community, regional area and nationally.
- Is a member of Union Council and the Inclusivity and Diversity Zone with full voting rights.

Useful skills or characteristics

- Passionate about social mobility and class issues
- Have a wide outreach with the student body
- Effective time management
- Be adaptable and communicative
- Good organisational skills
- Creativity

Skills you can expect to learn and develop

- General communication and liaison skills
- Experience organising events and running campaigns
- Representation and lobbying for change
- Confidence in speaking in forums and meetings

Average time commitment

On average volunteers spend between 6-8 hours a week on this role. Some weeks may have more hours than others.

Further questions

Please email the President of the Inclusivity & Diversity Zone at huu-inclusivity@hull.ac.uk if you have any questions about the role.